The Dupont Powder Co., has issued a statement denying that any of the recent fires and explosions at the various plants, which resulted in many deaths and injuries, had been caused by spies. The statement was prompted by Friday night's five fires at the Carney's Point, N. J., plant, which caused the death of four employees.

San Diego, just now is in the throes of a search for the typical San Diego girl to represent that city as "The San Diego 1916 Exposition Girl." Her introduction to the world will be on the front of a new issue of folders. The leading artists of California are to be on a committee to decide the qualifications necessary for San Diego's typical girl and another committee will be appointed later to determine which of the many possesses the qualifications.

C. E. Leatherman, of Louisville, has sued the Western Union Telegraph Co., alleging a troublesome messenger boy robbed him of $500 worth of sleep on last New Year's eve. Leatherman says the boy insisted on delivering a telegram to a person at his address who has not lived there for seventeen years. He says the messenger exhausted the whole household through his repeated visits. Perhaps he was also interfered with a visit from Santa Claus.

Indications are that the floods in the lower Mississippi valley will be the worst for many years. If the levees hold, the water is expected to reach 52.5 feet at Natchez by Feb. 20. Many towns in White river valley of Arkansas are already inundated and all tributaries are pouring vast volumes of water into the already swollen Mississippi. The town of Hickman, Ky., is already partly flooded and the danger is increasing every hour and refugee camps are being provided for the farmers on both sides of the river.

The scope of the San Diego Exposition, which is holding on this year, has been increased so greatly for 1916 that the directors have found it necessary to change the name to read, "Panama-California International Exposition." Canada, Russia, France, Italy, Germany, Austria, Brazil, The Netherlands, and Switzerland, are installing big displays—the greater part of them brought from the San Francisco Exposition. Other features of the beautiful Exposition have been enlarged so that the dedication of the new Exposition, March 15, is more than a matter of form.

Indications now are that the nomination of Louis D. Brandeis will be confirmed. The threatened opposition in the Senate is less formidable. According to present indications, the fight against confirmation, on behalf of the Democrats, will be led by Senator Reed, of Missouri, who led the fight against Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, to be a member of the federal reserve board, and which eventually was withdrawn by the President. Senators Hoke Smith, of Georgia, and Shields, of Tennessee, are expected to aid Senator Reed. The nomination will be defended by Senators Hollis, of New Hampshire, and James, of Kentucky. There will be no opposition to Brandeis on the ground of his religious faith or his German parentage.

GO TO DEATH OVER FALLS

Birds Fall Asleep on Niagara River and Are Carried Over the Great Waterfall.

Swimming too near the brink of the falls, hundreds of water birds, even swans, ducks and geese go over Niagara falls to their death each year in the migratory season. So many birds pay the penalty for their daring each year that bird lovers on both the American and Canadian sides of the falls are considering steps to lessen the animal toll of the feathered life.

Since a majority of the victims are claimed in the night, the theory is advanced that the birds go to sleep while swimming and don't wake up until the rapids have carried them over the danger line. Usually they are killed outright in the fall. Sometimes they are only stunned and are picked out of the river below the falls and sold for food.

In 1912, so Ernest Harold Baynes, the naturalist, relates, 140 whistling swans went over Horseshoe falls. Boys and men fished the birds out, knocked them on the head and sold them.

"James Savage of Buffalo," Mr. Baynes says, "with some friends, once saved a flock of swans by chasing them in a powerboat and making them fly away just before nightfall. It was a daring thing for these men to do, for, if by any chance the engine had become disabled, nothing could have prevented their going over the falls."—Philadelphia North American.

LOVE'S CHARM

The Lover—Ah! Geraldine, your weight seems to me as but a feather!

USE LYE TO PEEL PEACHES.

Lye-peeled peaches are no more injurious to health than hand-peeled fruits, according to Prof. M. E. Jaffa, consulting nutrition expert of the California state board of health, notwithstanding the general belief to the contrary. It is impossible to distinguish one from the other except for the knife marks on the hand-peeled product, according to Jaffa. The food value, flavor and quality are unchanged. In order to learn if the acidity of the lye-peeled peach is less than that of the hand-peeled peach, analyses have been made, and it has been determined that the lye process does not affect the acidity of the finished product.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS.

"So you wish to marry my daughter, eh?" said the stern parent. "By the way, how are you fixed financially?"

"Well," replied the young man, "I only possess a few hundred dollars, but I have great expectations."

"Yes, I suppose so," growled the s. p., "but in case I should live longer than you expect, how are you going to support her?"

HIS DOUBLE LOSS.

"I've been robbed in that hospital," shouted the loony ex-patient as he met a policeman.

"Who robbed you and what did they take?" asked the policeman.

"Why, one of the orderlies took my watch and all the doctors took my temperature."

Terrible Picture of Suffering.

Clinton, Ky.—Mrs. M. C. McElroy, in a letter from Clinton, writes: "For six years, I was a sufferer from female troubles. I could not eat, and could not stand on my feet, without suffering great pain. Three of the best doctors in the state said I was in a critical condition, and going down hill. I lost hope. After using Cardui a week, I began to improve. Now I feel better than six years." Fifty years of success, in actual practice, is positive proof that Cardui can always be relied on, for relieving female weakness and disease. Why not test it for yourself? Sold by all druggists.

REFUSES TO ADMIT DEFEAT

French Commander Applies the Principles of Christian Science to His Military Operations.

In "Behind the Scenes at the Front" Mr. George Adam, Paris correspondent of the London Times, tells a good deal that is interesting about the opinions of General Foch, who for five years lectured on strategy and tactics at the Ecole de Guerre. There he used often to quote a saying of Joseph de Maistre, which summed up the psychological element in defeat: "A battle lost is a battle that you think is lost, for battles are not lost materially."

To that military summary of the doctrine of Christian Science, General Foch added this formula of victory: "Battles are, accordingly, lost morally, and it is, therefore, morally that battles are gained; and a battle won is a battle in which you refuse to admit yourself beaten."

That is the more convincing since it comes from a soldier with a scientific mind. Moreover, on at least one occasion, when he had been forced three times to retire, he put his faith into practice.

After each retirement General Foch refused to admit defeat. He and the men under him had the moral strength, in which science plays no part, to refuse to know when they were beaten. On the third day the retirement began early in the morning. In the course of the day General Foch once more took the offensive, and by nightfall he had delivered the decisive blow on the center of the German army that led to its final retreat all along the line.—Youth's Companion.

VIRGINIA HAS ENOCH ARDEN

After Half Century Man Returns to Find That His Wife Has Another Husband.

Wandering over many of the western and New England states for more than fifty years, his departure from this country being due to domestic infelicity, his return to his native land only to find the wife of his youth the legal partner of another man, is the experience of George Rivan Bunday, who recently arrived here from Boston.

Bunday, a man now more than seventy-five years of age, makes no effort to absolve himself from being a contributing cause to a family misunderstanding, followed by an apparently "unhealable" rupture, as he now declares, and then his departure. And now his Enoch Arden appearance in this country after the lapse of half a century has no significance further than his native health is a good place for rehabilitation and atonement. He says he entertains nothing but the kindest feelings for his former wife and the man who replaced him in her affections.—Lynch (Va.) Dispatch Philadelphia Record.

DAUNTLESS DAMES.

"The Britons seem to be rather discouraged because they are not any nearer victory now than they were months ago."

"Quite so. I wish some of their statesmen could come over here and show our suffragettes bear up under defeat."

HIS POSSIBILITIES.

Physician (to magnate)—Seek some quiet, secluded place, where you can sleep well and where no one will pay any attention to you.

Magnate (in doubt)—Err, doctor, I say, how will going to church do?

HIS IDEA OF IT.

"What," asked the fair maid, "is your idea of happiness?"

"Being 'next' in a crowded barber shop," answered the practical young man.

SECRET SERVICE.

"I wish that waiter would stop staring at us."

"Yes, I don't like his policy of watchful waiting."—Judge.

POSSIBLE REASON.

"Why is the stork picked out as the bird to travel with the doctor?"

"I think it must be because he's got such a beautiful bill."

PRACTICAL APPRAISEMENT.

"Ma, James asked me last night to share his lot."

"Did he say whether it was one in a good building section?"

Sciatica's Piercing Pain.

To kill the nerve pains of Sciatica you can always depend on Sloan's Liniment. It penetrates to the seat of pain and brings ease as soon as it is applied. A great comfort too with Sloan's is that no rubbing is required. Sloan's Liniment is invaluable for stopping muscular or nerve pain of any kind. Try it at once if you suffer with Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sore Throat, Pain in Chest, Sprains, Bruises, etc. It is excellent for Neuralgia and Headache. 25c, at all Druggists.—Advertisement.

Does Red Make You Nervous? Suppose that you or your family are nervous, jumpy, inclined to irritability. Then you should choose the cooler, calmer shades of the scale of blue. This doesn't mean confining yourself to blue. Orange belongs in the scale of blue; for orange being made of the two other colors in the spectrum, is the complementary or direct opposite of blue; and, used with discretion, especially if the room has a northern exposure, it gives life and beauty to the main scheme, without becoming too exciting for the alert nerves of those who are to live in it. But if there are several husky, growing boys in the family, if you are all full of energy and life and go, then a red room will be voted jolly and bright, and will tone in well with your temperament. You don't want to overdo it, of course.
